KEEPING PACE WITH THE TIMES

How time flies! Our partnership between MOLOTOW™ and Schneider has now entered its eighth year, and we still have ambitious goals and projects ahead.

Together, we have achieved a lot, launching new products, including the RedDot award-winning Twin marker Sketcher by MOLOTOW™ and Schneider's Paint-It 040, which was also recognized as "Product of the Year B2C" by the Association of PBS Brands Industry. Both products are pioneers in resource conservation, as both the pen body and refill cartridges are made from 95% recycled plastic.

But important steps have also been taken in the manufacturing process and logistics: a state-of-the-art and highly efficient hazardous goods warehouse has been put into operation at the Weilheim i.O. location. It is one of the most modern facilities in Germany. This enables us to respond even faster and more flexibly to customer demands and meet the growing demands of a rapidly changing world.

Together, we are taking the next steps - it never stops!

Ideas, technology & style: new
How-to tutorials for the Makers Line.

Creativity needs to be set free! DIY fans from all over the world will find the right tools for this in the Makers Line range. And now we have even more available for you: in the new content format "Maker's Guide", we show what talents are hidden in our tools. We started off with the acrylic marker: in YouTube videos, Makers demonstrate how they work with different materials - whether fabric, metal, wax or ceramics. The clips contain useful tips on all aspects of the right technique, but also lots of ideas to try out. Handy: all infos are also available in a complete brochure.

Premiere

First trade fair appearance of the Makers Line: Schneider presents sub-brand during Creativeworld 2023.

The Creativeworld in Frankfurt is the world's most important trade fair for the international hobby, craft and artists' supplies sector. After a two-year break due to the pandemic, the creative community was finally able to get together again! From 4 to 7 February 2023, the Makers Line made its first major public appearance: all tools from spray cans to chrome markers were on board and could be examined by all those who were interested. A test station also invited to try out the tools. Very cool: Makers were live on site and visitors could look over their shoulders as they worked. Thus, the Makers Line stand became a hotspot for creative exchange.
